Homelessness Town Hall: What is the City doing to address homelessness?

Dear Friends,

Councilmembers Mitchell Englander and Bob Blumenfield invite you to a town hall conversation focusing on the homelessness problem in the San Fernando Valley. The town hall will feature leaders from the City, County, and relevant agencies, who will address and answer questions on homelessness throughout the City and the complex challenges the City faces.

Panelists include Peter Lynn, Executive Director of the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA); Stephanie Klasky-Gamer, President and CEO of LA Family Housing; Commander Todd Chamberlain, LAPD Homeless Coordinator; Raffy Astvasadoorian, West Valley Neighborhood Prosecutor for the LA City Attorney; Molly Rysman, Housing and Homelessness Deputy for LA County Supervisor Sheila Kuehl; and Nancy Volpert, Director of Public Policy for the Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles.

We will be accepting donations of canned goods, socks, and toiletries at the event.
